

I oppose further consolidation in the radio industry.
The increasing consolidation has lead to a homogeneous blend of talk shows and pop stations at the expense of local treasures such as classical and independent stations.